

Ever wish you could travel Classic Journeys-style in North America?

Dear [salutation],

You know us. We love picnics in Tuscan vineyards. Sunset in Santorini. Chatting up a chef in Provence, a Scottish shepherd or a Costa Rican butterfly expert. That will never change.

But like so many of our guests, we've always balanced our overseas travels with journeys closer to home – ferrying off to solitude in Washington's lush San Juan Islands, enjoying a cookout at a friend's ranch in Montana, walking Nova Scotia's spectacular coast, sipping wine in Napa Valley.

For 2003, Classic Journeys has 9 tours in U.S. and Canada.

We've applied our distinct philosophy of traveling to each of them. These are not the family car trips of your youth (or the rent-a-car rambles we've all taken).

Every North American Classic Journey has been carefully created in the high style you remember with full-time local guides, unforgettable walking, and rich insights into culture and natural history. We've lined up our favorite inns and fantastic dining on regional specialties. Most of all, we promise you that memorable sense of really experiencing the places you visit with us. And on your own, that can be just as hard to do in North America as in Turkey or the Czech Republic.

Please call us if you have questions, or would like more information about any of these tours!

The North American itineraries for 2003 include: Islands of the Pacific Northwest; Nova Scotia's Coasts and Villages; Québec & Charlevoix; Napa Valley & Sonoma Coast; Vermont; Santa Fe & Taos; Alaska's Kenai Peninsula; Bryce, Grand Canyon and Zion; and Montana's Glacier Park Glories.

We look forward to welcoming you on a Classic Journeys' North American tour soon!

Cordially,
